IN A SHADOW

Of the Immortal Shaks- peare's Statue

Sir Henry Irving's Ashes Laid to Rest in Westminster Abbey.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

That Were Notably Simple Began Promptly at the Noon Hour.

Ambassador Reed Returned From Scotland to Attend.

London, Oct. 20.—Beside that other great actor Garrick and under the shadow of the statue of Shakspeare as the interpreter of whose plays he won fame, the ashes of Sir Henry Irving were today given burial in Westminster Abbey, this being one of England's greatest tributes.

The services were of an impressive character and were conducted in presence of a congregation which included many from the highest officials of England, representatives of all walks of life and the representatives of the gallery, to which Irving was so invariably attentive, who could find standing room in the Abbey. King Edward was represented by General Sir Ditch-ey Probyn, keeper of the privy purse, and the Prince of Wales was represented by Lieut. Col. Wm. P.
Carrington, commander of the Prince's household, while the cabinet ministers and ambassadors attended in person.
Whitelaw Reid, who is visiting in Scotland coming to London purposely to testify American respect of the tra-gician. Long before the hour set for the burial, immense crowds gathered around the Abbey and those having cards of admission were in their seats as early as 10 o'clock. Those who were unable to secure admittance remained about the entrance until conclusion of the ceremony when in common with thousands of others they passed through "Poets Corner" to see the burial place. The service, although simple and short was most impressive.

As the mourners arrived Sir Frederick Bridge, the organist of Westminster Abbey, played Chopin's re-morial march, followed by Purcell's formorial music rendered with trumpets and trombones, then came Schubert's "Marche Solennelle."

Shortly at noon the procession started from the chapel of St. Faith where the casket containing the ashes had lain over night and passed through the cloisters to the space between the choir and the sanctuary where the casket covered with laurel wreaths was displayed. During the procession the choir sang the hymn "Brief Life Is Here Our Portion." Then followed the psalm, "Lord Then Hast Been Our Refuge." The lesson was read by Canon Duckworth, the sub-dean of Westminster, who was assisted in the service by Bishop Welland, Archbishop of Canterbury and Canon Hensley Henson. The anthems were "Crossing the Bar" and "Weep Ye Not For the Dead." After the anthems the casket was borne to the grave as the organ played forth the funeral march from "Coriolanus." The only mourners were Lady Irving and the sons of Sir Henry Irving.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 20.—Edward Geo. Cunliffe the Pittsburg Adams Express Co. employee, who escaped from Pittsburg with $101,000 and was arrested here yesterday, started back to Pittsburg, with the detectives this morning. Cunliffe seemed more low spirited today than when he was first captured. He explained this by saying that he had hoped to arrange for lenient treatment after reaching Pittsburg by trading on his secret as to the whereabouts of the stolen money, but the fact that the detectives recovered $80,000 of the money in Bristol Conn., last evening, removed the prisoner's hopes in this respect. After being told by the detectives of the recovery of this money Cunliffe said that he had burned the rest of the amount stolen, about $20,000 because the bills were all of large denomination and all on the same bank, making it dangerous for him to carry them about. The discovery of the shipment of money to Bristol came about through a local driver for the Adams Express Co., who after Cunliffe's arrest remembered that on Oct. 12 he was called to the Arlington Hotel where Cunliffe had a room and was given a suit case to be shipped to Bristol, care of the Electric Express Co. The driver informed the local manager of the Adams Express Co. yesterday of this circumstance and detectives were at once sent to Bristol where they located the suit case at the home of a relative of Cunliffe, Jos. W. Boardman. It had not been opened and contained $80,000 in bills together with some clothing.

Cunliffe, according to his own statement did not spend more than $150 during the ten days which intervened between the departure from Pittsburg and his arrest. His hotel expenses were small in this city, the little back room he occupied costing him only $2.50 a week. As far as can be learned he mingled very little in the social gaily of that section of the city where he lived and made no display of his money.

Although the detectives are inclined to accept Cunliffe's story that he destroyed part of the stolen money, one of them still remains here today to complete the investigation of the case.
The other detectives, including Supt.
Thornhill of the private agency went to New York with the prisoner.

Atlanta, Ga.

Rosewell, Ga., Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt is the guest of the "Cracker" state after a night spent in passing through part of the "Tarheel" country and traversing the state of South Carolina. The special train bearing the presidential party crossed the Georgia Line near Torcoo early this morning and spent the succeeding hours wending its way through the heart of Piedmont region. The route lay along the foot hills of the eastern end of the Blue Ridge but it was too early for the members of the party to be up to enjoy this lovely scene.

The day's program for the president embraces stops at Rosewell, Atlanta and Macon. Here at Rosewell, the one time home of the president's mother a small town that lies just off the main line of the Southern Railway, the president is scheduled to remain until 2:30 o'clock this morning.

Owing to the early hour of arrival the presidential party was not to leave the train until 8:30 although due here at 7 a. m. This left an hour for the president's visit to the old homestead. The bulk of the day is to be spent at Atlanta where the city is handsomely decorated and the strangers already beginning to arrive are expected to aggregate 75,000. The president will be escorted to the state fair grounds at Piedmont Park, three miles from the terminal station at Atlanta by two troops of the twelfth United States Cavalry, followed by the citizens reception committee, detachment from the 7th U. S. infantry and from several state military organizations together with a representation of organized labor. At the fair grounds the president will deliver an address. A luncheon and general reception will follow. At the Georgia School of Technology 500 students will be ready to receive him with Harvard yells mingled with their own college yells. He will inspect the work shops and address the boys from a stand covered with crimson of Harvard. After a drive he is to return to his train. Mrs. Roosevelt will be escorted to the governor's mansion, where she will be given a reception and will watch the parade escorting the president. She will be escorted to her train over the line of march after the parade along Peachtree street, and will take the train for Washington at a suburb. The president is scheduled to leave Atlanta at 7 p. m. arriving at Macon 10:30, spending five minutes there and proceed on the over-night trip to Jacksonville, Florida.

NEEDS OF CITIZENS

Of Porto Rico Are Discussed at a Meeting Held In New York State.

THE SCHOOL SYSTEM

Cited as One Department That Is in Need of Development.

Lake Mohawk, N. Y., Oct. 20.—The needs of the people of Porto Rico were considered at the morning session of today's conference of the Friends of the Indian and other dependent peoples. Three addresses were delivered each of them by an expert in Porto Rican affairs.

Dr. Samuel McCune Lindsay, professor of sociology in the University of Pennsylvania, who was the first commissioner of education in Porto Rico, said that it was necessary that one half the revenues of the island instead of one quarter as at present, be devoted to the schools in order to make up for four centuries of inferior development and to equip the Porto Ricans to compete industrially and economically with Americans.

Other speakers on Porto Rican topics were Dr. Roland P. Falkner, the present commissioner of education there; and Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, professor of political economy at Johns Hopkins University who was the special commissioner of the war department in regard to taxation laws in 1900 the first treasurer of the new dependency and who put into practical operation the fiscal system of the island.

KEEP IT QUIET

For Thirty Days Anyway Was Bride's Instructions.

Why the timid couple were so insistent that their marriage be kept a secret developed at the court house today when a relative searched the records and gave out the information to the license clerk that the bride was under fourteen and the groom but sixteen years of age, and the law sanctions no marriage of a girl under sixteen.

The groom is Mr. Ray Shriver who gave his age as 21 and the bride Miss Ethel Paden, who had her father's consent and who said her age was 17.
They were married by Justice J. W.
Mowen last night, and requested secrecy. The court was willing but the press defeated him. The bride noting that the "Squire had thirty days in which to make his return, sweetly whispered:

"Keep it out thirty days, then won't you?" and Mr. Mowen promised and tried.

youth, charged with stealing a horse from Liverman H. W. Bonetti in today, as did Martin Leugh, also indicted for horse theft. Both were immediately sentenced by Judge Cun-

Mansfield Reformatory.

SENT IT BACK

Higher Court Reverses Decision

In Suit Brought to Compel Forfeiture of Lease in Indiana

OLD HOTEL LANDMARK

At Geneva, Indiana, Known As the Shamrock Has Been Abandoned

Court Reports Show Several Indiana Concerns in Bad Financially

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 20.—Judge Black of the state appellate court reversed the decision of the Huntington county circuit court in the case of Alpheus T. Seales vs. Condon Oil Co. The decision as handed down says that the complaint to cancel a lease is defective which only stated that plaintiff and defendant joined in a contract and does not allege ownership of land. The lease is not the foundation of the action and therefore cannot be considered as a part of the complaint.

This action was brought in the Huntington circuit court by Brannan & Feighner for Seales, the Condon Oil company being made defendants. Sweeney & Van Atta were attorneys for the company. Judge Brannan held the complaint good and that the lease was forfeited for the reason that the leasing company had failed to put down oil wells as agreed upon. An appeal was taken and the decision of Judge Black is that the complaint is not good and the case will therefore be sent back to the Huntington court for a new trial. Merits of the case are not discussed by the appellate court.

Huntington County Wells.

In Jefferson township, Huntington county, Thomas Lancers & Sons have completed well No. 5 on the Thomas Lancers farm, section 34, and it pumped 45 barrels.

In Salamonie township, two dusters have been completed which is an unusual thing for the county. J. T. Hadley, agent, has one in No. 3 on the J. D. Merriman farm, section 36, and the Buffalo Oil company the other in a test on the M. Gephart farm, in the northwest quarter of section 26.

Yesterday, Helen DeVoe, of south Elizabeth street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. DeVoe, was a year old, and the following physicians called and made merry over the occasion—Helen McKinnon, Louise Flinn, Vera and the bell Helen, Marie Kramka, Annanell Wyatt, Arminia Markley, Rosa Warner, Grace Hoyer, Hannah Josen.

Music, games and refreshments were a part of the pastime features, and Mrs. DeVoe was assisted in looking after the tots by Misses Elma Nutting and Gail Bowdle.

Barney Steeps High.
You all know Sam, Barney, teacher of south Pine street. Well he is "put" know whether his name is Sam, Barney or Barney Sam. Anyway he and the little one's mother are proud.

THANKS.
William Stone, whose household goods were recently destroyed in the second and successful attempt to burn the Trusdale property on south Elizabeth street, recently, wishes to thank his friends for the well-filled purse in need is a friend, indeed.

Broke an Arm.
Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Rudy and

A NEWSPAPER FOR BLIND.

For the first time in history the blind have now a weekly paper of their own. It is published at Edinburgh, Scotland, for a penny, too, and contains an excellent record of the events of the week, doings in parliament, the way in the East, and so on.
It is called the Braille Weekly, after the French inventor of the greatest system of printing and writing for the blind, and is printed on a cylinder press by a new invention, which alone enables the paper to be issued at the popular price of a single copper coin.

Printing for the blind in embossed Braille type is done by taking a sheet of tough damp paper and placing it between two sheets of zinc on which dots have been stamped. The sandwich of paper and zinc is then passed through a sort of mangle and when it comes out the paper is dried and the raised dots become permanent.—News-

Fourth Ward—JOHN W. ARNOLD.

Plus P. Smith, a popular and responsible citizen of the North End, who lives at 101 North Jackson street, is the democratic candidate for assessor in the First ward.

The people who live along the canal which, before the long ago plan was devised to steal it from the state was a prominent factor in the conference and up building of community and became a solid vote against the republican candidate for representative of the canal pass into the hands of the state and out of existence.Every republican candidate for representative is already pledged to do nothing to build in canal and all other matters he may ask of them and there will be plenty of them.Thomas A. Collins, the democratic candidate for council in the second ward lives at 101 North Jackson street, in the North End, and is a representative man not only among his people, but in the city where he is widely and favorably known. His ability to fill the position of councilman is recognized, and his reputation for honesty—a necessary qualification when one looks back over the work of past councils—is beyond question.Mr. Collins will be elected by a handsome majority and will serve not only the North End, but his entire ward capably, faithfully and conscientiously.

GOOD COMBINATION THIS YEAR.

It is the duty of every Christian citizen of Ohio to stand up on election day with God and a lead pencil and vote against turning the state over to the bosses and the grafters, said Rev. John Ruediger, of Cleveland, in a speech favoring the election of Pattison at the United Brethren church in Akron last night. As evidence of the way the bosses work, Ruediger pointed to the arrest of Michael Ryan, an employee of the State Fire Marshal, for voting 32 men who were not present and two dead men at the recent republican primaries in Cleveland.

THE AMERICAN CONGRESS.

The views of Col. Hepburn, of Iowa, concerning the United States senate seem to coincide with those of his chief, Speaker Cannon. Gen. Grosvenor, of Ohio, was at the White House today, and was telling about the trip of Secretary Taft's party to the far east."When we were in Tokyo," he said, "we attended a banquet at which Representative Hepburn responded to the toast, 'Views of the American Congress on the Philippine Question.' Col.
Hepburn said that the American congress was made up of 386 human beings and 90 senators. Consequently no one could foretell what their views would be."—New York Times.

HE KEPT SILENT.

It is not strange that Herrick kept silent about the canals of Ohio when he spoke in St. Marys, Delphos and at other towns along the banks of the Miami and Erie.The governor had $150,000 in "Electric Mule Stock"—a corporate creature in which Geo. B. Cox was the controlling spirit, and a corporation designed for the purpose of deliberately stealing the Miami and Erie canal from the state.It will be remembered, the testimony of Governor Herrick on the "mule" subject was never obtained, although he was often subpoenaed. On days of hearing it was always convenient for his excellency to be out of state jurisdiction.

LIBERAL ENOUGH NOW.

At a meeting of the liquor dealers of St. Marys, held yesterday, eleven of the twenty-two present refused to support Herrick, or to contribute to his campaign as requested by Senator

Pilk.

The division among the St. Marys liquor men indicates a growing sentiment among those engaged in the business that an aggressive activity on their part in politics will bring about unjustified attacks on the traffic.A prominent local dealer in beer-ages gave his version of it yesterday in this manner:"The laws governing the sale of liquors in Ohio are more liberal than in any state in the union, and I cannot see why our fellows will even listen to arguments that they get active for or against this or that fellow, or party.""We had better let well enough alone," and unless we do we are going to revivify sentiment so strongly against us, that some of us will go out of business as the direct result of legislation of a prohibitory character, or a license so high that but few can pay it."Continuing he said: "There is not a great deal of difference between the Brannock Bill as it stands now, and as originally passed, except that the latter placed more restrictions on the location of a saloon in residential districts. I am not ashamed of my business, but I have sense enough to respect the wishes of the people in a district where a majority of them do not want a saloon, and I honestly believe that if we as a body or as individuals take a hand in the Ohio fight, and arouse latent antagonism, the people of Allen county, Lima included, will before long have the opportunity to vote on county local option, and I am afraid of the result."

A VAIN LOOK.

We look in vain through the republican city ticket to find anyone who resides north of the Pennsylvania railroad. Frank Landick, lives on west Market street; Frank Downing on west North; C. F. Donze on south Main street; H. C. Napier, west Kibby; Sardius Abbott, east Market; Wm. M.
Melville, west Market; Charles Roney, west Wayne; W. E. Penny, west Spring; W. L. McLain, south Main; Gus Kalb, west Market; S. K. Krauss, west Wayne; Chas. C. Davison, Holmes avenue; Chas. Rockhill, east High; M. L. Sebring, west High; Jacob A. Kepner, north Heindel; J.
S. Sanders, east Market."Boss" Quail overlooked the North End geographically and otherwise in his selections, and since his packed convention he has been heard to say to some of his candidates: "Don't pay any attention to those fellows from the North End for they are boddies, and will bleed you to death if you'll let them."The North end will do its whole and conscientious duty on election day by giving the democratic ticket from top to bottom the usual majority. The voters there will also put complete condemnation on Mr. Quail's opinion of them.They know full well up there that their end of the city has been given the worst of it by republican councils and that even now a plan is afoot to take north Main street for a double track street railway system without any return save a bad street, and that if Quail's ticket is elected it has promised that the plan will be successful.The same sort of republican harmony seems to be prevailing at Marion as does in Lima.
Governor Herrick had a meetingthere yesterday afternoon, but his lieutenant governor, Warren G. Har-dink, a resident of Marion did not attend it.

A BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.

Theo. D. Robb, the city's present mayor, and police judge and democratic candidate for re-election, is endorsed by the city auditor's annual report as having given the Lima a business like and economical administration, and one of profit to the city treasury.From Auditor Beams' report for the first year of Mayor Robb's administration, the following figures are taken:

Receipts Mayor's Office.

Will the republican morning exponent find fault with Mayor Robb's first year's record, and the second one is equally as good.We ask that it cite one mayorality administration of the past that will equal it, or even approach it on any line.

MR. KOCH'S RECORD.

It isn't necessary to go back to Louis Koch's gallant fight against the Timberlake sewer, while a member of the city council.He is at present a member of the board of sinking fund trustees, and as such has been serving the city for about two years without any compensation.For the year 1904, the sinking fund trustees started with a capital of $5504.76. This was handled so ably that interest was received on investments during the year amounting to $923.20. Expenses of the board, which included stationery and indemnity bonds amounted to $13.75, leaving a net profit to the city for the year of $909.54.The trustees began the year 1905 with $15,000.59 as their working capital.The profits made to October 1st amounted to $2,118.26 and the expenses were $11.65; showing a net profit to the city for the first nine months of the year of $2,106.61, and the full year will show over $3000.Mr. Koch has a record of never having missed a meeting of the board of sinking fund trustees, and was the leader in all the transactions recorded above, and which brought profit to the city.The above transactions do not include interest on bonds on deposit, that being a separate account.If Mr. Koch can handle public indebtedness matters as shown above, doesn't it look as though he would be a safe and capable man to handle Public Service matters which run up to $250,000 annually?The above figures were taken from the sinking fund trustees' journal and accounts.

The Style That's Right

it, but real, genuine style is a rare quality indeed.So many things contribute to prosigner's pencil to the sewing on of the button, style is made in the H.

At a meeting of the elders of the serve for one year as a "stated supply." Mr. Laird has since accepted, and

The action by the elders was taken on the purpose of having the pulpit open every Sunday during the illness of Rev. R. J. Thomson, word having been received from him at Clifton springs, New York, that it would probably be a year before he would be able to resume his pastoral duties.

THE IDLER.
The story is going about today with good authority back of it that Tom Edwards is claiming that the sudden change in the editorial attitude of the Republican-Gazette, and the cessation of its abuse of democratic candidates, was due to peremptory orders issued by him to the editor.
Mr. Edwards claims that he told Mr. Campbell, his editorial course was losing him (Edwards) many votes in Lima, and that he had to stop it, and that thereupon he stopped.
The real truth of the matter is that the story told by Edwards is a piece of political humbug. The reason for

INDUSTRIALS GO UP.

Leading Railroad Stocks Also Show an Advancing Tendency.

Quotations on Grain, Live Stock, Produce and Provisions.

New York, Oct. 20.—The heavy tone of the London market was without influence in the opening transactions on the stock market here, and prices advanced practically without exception. The industrials were prominent, Gen. Elec. and Republic Steel preferred; rising about a point and Locomotive and Central Leather, large fractions; Canadian Pacific and Missouri Pacific, also showed gain; American Car rejected 5-58, from its advance of yesterday.

There were 3 1/4 in Locomotive preferred, 2 1/4 in Minn. St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie preferred, 1 1/4 in Vulcan Detinning and 1 in Hocking Coal. The general list was inclined to slip back with a subsidence in active demand. Southern Pac. and U. S. Steel came into the open point gains. The closing was active and strong.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
Chicago, Oct. 20.—On heavy selling by commission houses December wheat declined 3 1/2¢ here today. Liberal offerings of corn sent December off to 14 1/4¢. Profit taking by small holders depressed December oats 28 5/8¢; Jan. provisions opened steady pork at 12 1/4¢; lard 82 1/2¢.

Last Hope Vanished.
When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then I have used it for over ten years and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for coughs, sore throats or colds; sure preventive of pneumonia. Guaranteed 60c and $1.00 bottles at H. F. Vorkkamp's drug store. Trial bottle free.

RUG PEDDLER
Arrested and Given a Chance to Get Out of the City.

A Syrian rug peddler who was about to sell some of his goods in violation of the peddlers' license was arrested by Patrolman Neubrecht this morning. He was given an opportunity to leave the city and he did so without a second invitation, taking the first train for Ft. Wayne. The combined efforts of the police and the business men are gradually discouraging this kind of imposition and many households are better off as a result.

Cheated Death.
Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of East Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." H. F. Vorkkamp, druggist, guarantees them at 50 cents.

UNFORTUNATE SMILE.
"I suppose," sighed Mrs. Wobbb, "that before I have been dead a year, another woman will be dead in my shoes."
"Ah, my dear, how can you think so?" protested Mr. Wobbb. "No other woman could ever fill them."
And then he wondered why she was madder than ever.—Cleveland Leader.

STRANGE CASE.

A New York World Correspondence From Waterbury, Conn., Tells of a Man Who Served 27 Years in Jail for Drunkenness.

Judge Edgar M. Warner, of Putnam, who is well known as an advocate of prison reform, and has long waged war against the Connecticut system of punishment for petty offenses, now believes he has discovered the finest specimen of the "horrible example" that ever served a reformer's cause.

The "horrible example" is a prisoner now in the New Haven county jail, where he has spent no less than 27 years. And the most serious offense he ever committed was that of getting drunk, with never so simple a frill as an assault or a bit of "pan-handling."

Neither Judge Warner nor Sheriff Dunham will make known the name of the prisoner. They say he is the disolute son of a family of more than state prominence; that his relatives long ago cast him off, and that he himself in his sober moments wishes to be regarded as dead.

"The least we can do for the poor devil is to keep his secret," said the sheriff this afternoon. "He is only a poor victim of the law," said Judge Warner, "why should I tell you his name?"

The man was first committed in May, 1878. He had been on a protracted debauch in New Haven and entered the jail half intoxicated. He served ten days and was discharged. In twenty-four hours he was back again with a sentence of three months against him. That tells his life story. In all these past 27 years the man has never been free from the jail for more than 12 hours at a time. Usually he gets no further away than the little saloon a few yards distant from the jail entrance. Sometimes he makes a long journey to the center of the city. Once he stayed so long enough to ship as a deck-hand aboard a coal barge, but they called the patrol wagon before the tow got under way.

His shortest sentence was for the original 10 days. His longest has been four months. He has been committed 161 times and the state has expended more than $10,000 for his trials and his support. He is to be discharged in less than a month.

"We'll let him go in the morning and have him back before night," said Sheriff Dunham.

Judge Warner will bring the man's case before the National Prison Association. According to the judge, a sentence of 120 days is only long enough for the development of a consuming thirst in a hard drinker. He wants the laws so changed that the habitual drunkards may be committed for one or two years.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR
People in a flat always have a piano because there is no room for it. The best way to find out who are not your friends is to lend them money and the next to be in public office. A woman's idea of scandal is to wear stockings that don't match the color of something else not to be seen. If a man misses a train he is trying to catch it is hard for him to make himself believe it isn't because he has to support a big family.—From the New York Press.

The old adage of "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good" was recalled to mind this morning, when, as everyone was grieving over the weather conditions and the outlook for the big race meeting, the bulletin board at the Buckeye building announced another advance in the price of oil. The prospect of continued bad weather is not pleasant to contemplate either in the oil business or in the horse racing business but the advancing oil market will certainly help some and will serve as an inducement for more activity in the Trenton rock oil fields than is likely to be seen around a race track with such weather conditions as are now prevailing.

The advance of today was five cents

IS WALKING TO LIMA

To Seek the Grave of Her Daughter Who Died
Here Recently.

HER MIND DERANGED

And Indiana Officers Seek to Place Mrs. West in State Hospital.

Officers, relatives and friends are searching the country east of Albany for traces of Mrs. Margaret West, aged 50, says a despatch from Muncie. She started on foot for her old home near Lima, Ohio, where a daughter was buried a few months ago. The daughter's death upset Mrs. West's mind, and papers were made out here today by Sheriff Swain, who was to take her to the insane hospital at Richmond tomorrow. She has been traced a distance of 15 miles to near Portland, walking with a shawl over her head and shoulders.

THE REGISTRATION

SECOND DAY RESULTS

Bring Out Nearly Four Hundred New Voters
in Lima.

The second day's registration in Lima shows a decided increase over that of a week ago, but how many new names are being added, the board of elections are unable to determine, as transfers and removals are being included in the general reports given the board, while the tabulated and separated reports are as yet unopened by the board. There was a total in the eighteen precincts yesterday of 356, which added to the 104 of last Thursday makes a new registration of 460. Possibly fifty percent of these are removals from one precinct to another making under an estimate a new voting population of possibly 250. As last year, however, was the first for registration, there is little on which to base comparisons, as necessarily there have been removals from the city and deaths, and the new list must grow greater to show a healthy increase. The registration yesterday by precincts was as follows:

Precinct	A	B	C	D	E	Total
First	8	12	16	24	—	60
Second	16	21	38	26	19	120
Third	35	24	24	23	—	106
Fourth	21	19	31	16	15	102

Mr. and Mrs. Ephram Roush Honored by a Party of Lima Friends.

Last evening a party of friends, mostly from the south side, drove to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ephram Roush, two miles northeast of the city, and gave that happy couple a pleasant reminder that on the 19th day of October, twenty-five years ago, they had agreed to take each other for better or for worse, and that the callers had called to assist in a silver wedding celebration.

"Parson" Roush went along to make the presentation speech in transferring a beautiful lot of fine silverware to the Roushes from those assembled, as a token of esteem.

Social chats were interspersed with music, and the affair wound up with an oyster supper, to which many other tempting dainties were added.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook and daughter, Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nunemaker, and daughters, Fay, Bonnie and Ode, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Nunemaker and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. DeWeese, Mr. and Mrs. C. M.
